

April 30, 1973

SPEAKER: You--asking unanimous consent--

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: --withdraw the amendment.

SPEAKER: but to withdraw the amendments? Are there any objections? If not, so ordered. Now we're ready to consider LB 378 then on general file--on select file.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Mr. President--

SPEAKER: Since there are no amendments on the bill, then Senator Cavanaugh, you can move to return LB 378 to final reading.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Mr. President, I move LB--to move--I move LB 378 be mo--advanced to final reading--final reading, there isn't anything to engro--its already been engrossed.

SPEAKER: The Chair will say that we need 25 votes. Those in favor of advancing it to final reading vote aye. Those opposed vote no. Senator Whitney voting aye. Senator Lewis?

SENATOR LEWIS: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislature. I don't like to try to interrupt the proceedings at this time but we had had some discussion on this bill and Senator Rasmussen, I did put this amendment on which met with quite a lot of resistance from the retail associations, food retailers and we agreed to send this bill back to a committee hearing if it meets the approval of the body, and we have spoken to the chairman of the committee that heard it in the first place and he feels that it would be advisable to bring it back and give it a public hearing so whatever move is necessary at this time, I think has the full approval of Senator Rasmussen, doesn't it?

SPEAKER: There is a motion before the house, Senator Lewis, so we'll have to accept this motion at the moment. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK 22 ayes, 9 nays, 18 not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Motion fails. Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well--do they want it back to a committee for a hearing?

SPEAKER: Senator Lewis, will you answer that question or Senator Rasmussen?

SENATOR LEWIS: Yes, we'd like to have it sent back to the Reference Committee and, and hopefully assigned to the same committee that heard it the first time and give it a--

SENATOR CARPENTER: Who heard it the first time?

SENATOR LEWIS: Agriculture and Recreation.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I move, Mr. President, we send it back to Agriculture for a rehearing.

SENATOR LEWIS: Second.

SPEAKER: It has been moved and seconded that we send LB 378 back to Agriculture Committee for rehearing. Any discussion? Take 25 votes. Those in favor vote aye. Those opposed vote nay. Senator Whitney voting aye.

CLERK: Senator Whitney voting aye.

SPEAKER: Have you all voted? Clerk will record.
